

Developing Innovation - HELP

P2P 2025

access
employment

Delivering Results

ACCES Employment's integrated service model allows us to target and customize our employment services to meet the unique needs of employers and jobseekers.

56,000+

Jobseekers
served annually

4,200+

Employers in our network

85%

Of assisted
clients secured
employment or
enrolled in an educational or
training
program

86%

Of clientele
are immigrants

2,435

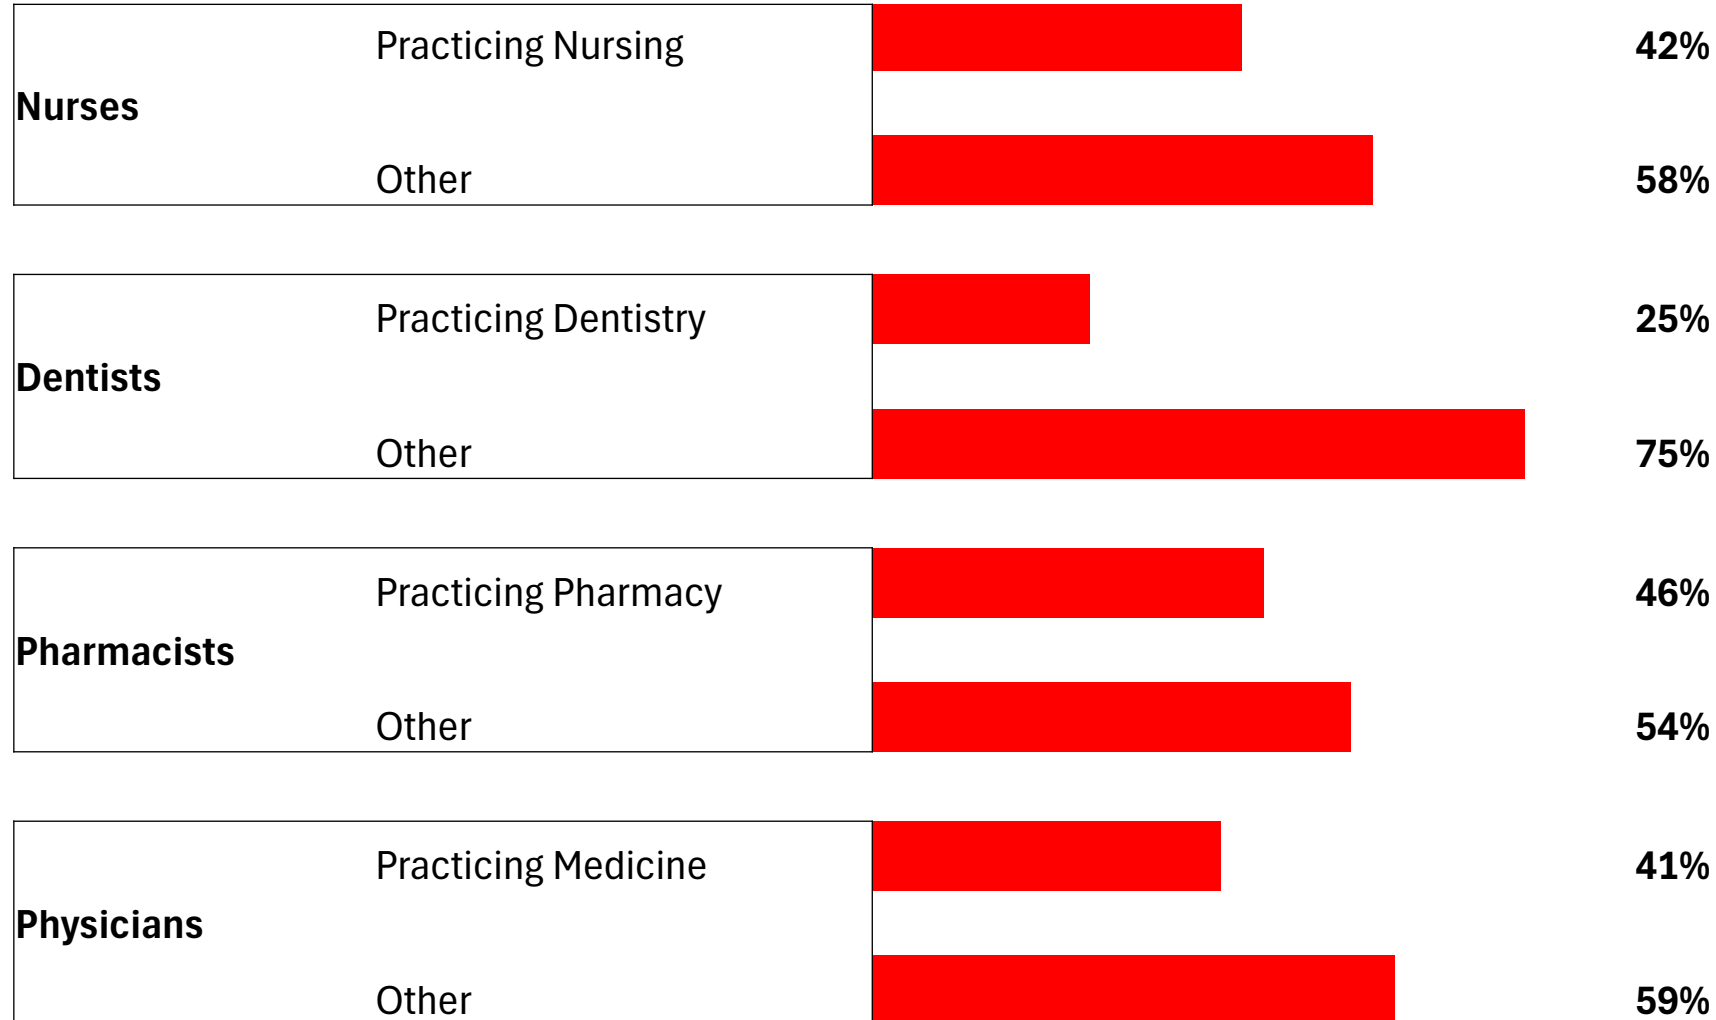

Pre-arrival
immigrants
served before arriving in Canada
annually

37+

Years of experience
delivering employment and
recruitment
services

6M+ Canadians lack regular access to primary care

Driving Change through Collaboration

HELP originated in the medical community

From obstetrician to midwife, but how?

The secret language of medicine

Friendships as lifelines

Resilience and success

Friends

Eva Grunfeld

CMAJ August 15, 2022 194 (31)

cmaj
CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION JOURNAL

HELP was informed by extensive consultation

Licensed
Physicians

22 + Pilot + Eval

Internationally
Trained
Physicians

65 + Pilot + Eval

A large red circle with a thick border, centered on the left side of the slide.

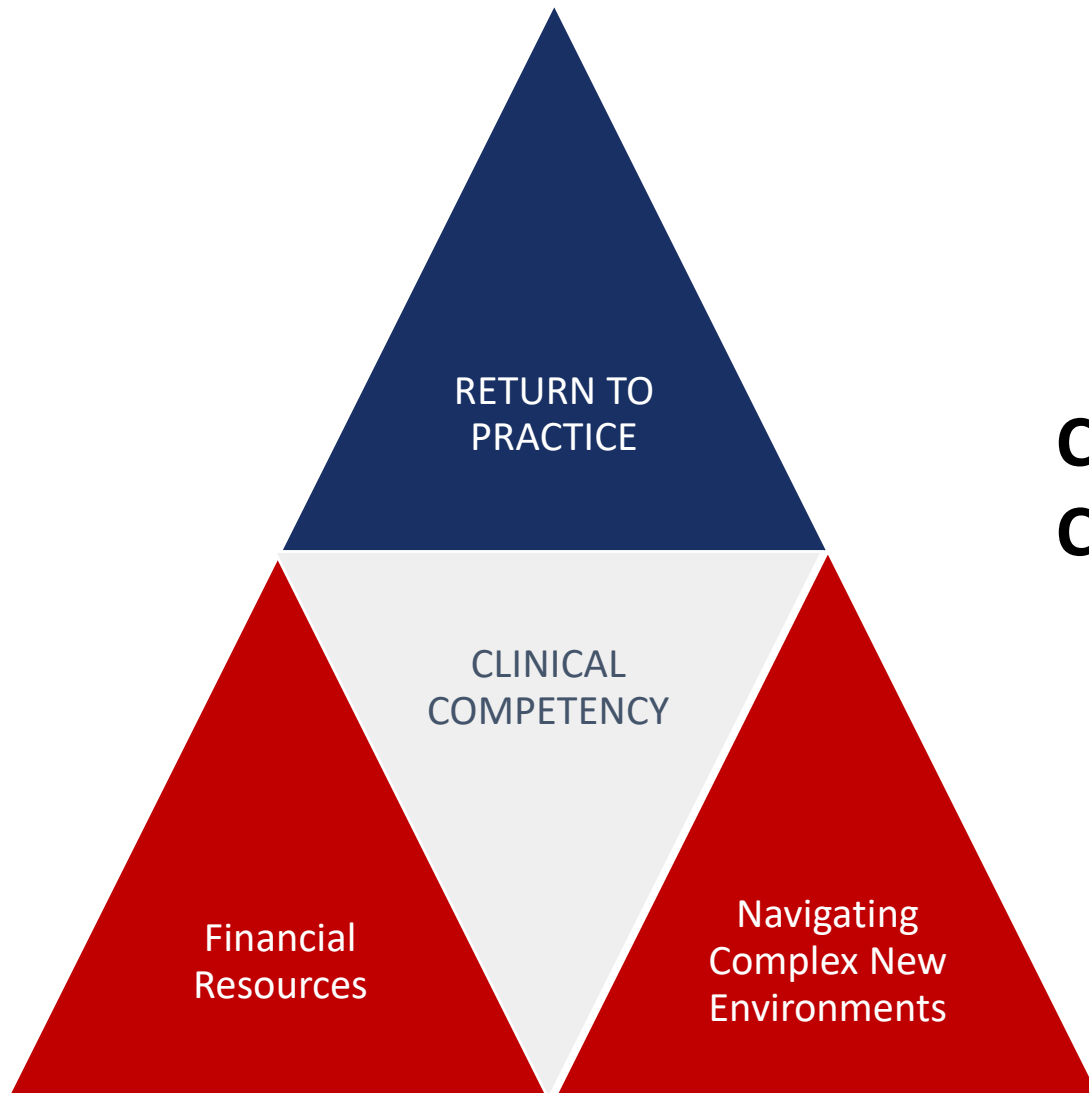

Licensed
Physicians

What is motivating you to volunteer?

What do you feel qualified to do in this volunteering opportunity?

What worries you about volunteering?

First Crucial Decision – Limiting Scope

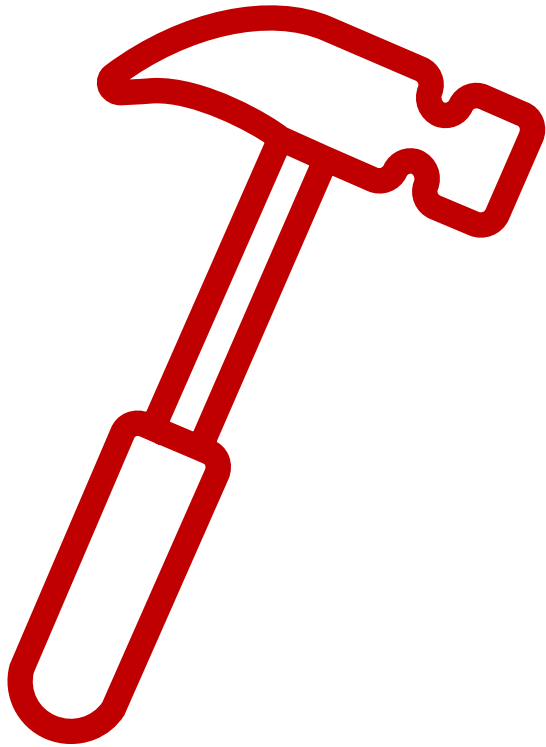

Volunteer Physicians

Can Do?
Can't Do?

Will Do?
Won't Do?

Breaking down barriers

Licensed
Physicians

Non-licensed Physicians

HELP

Building Bridges, Breaking Barriers

Health English Language Pro

Medical Community Engagement

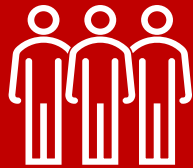

291

Newcomer
Physicians

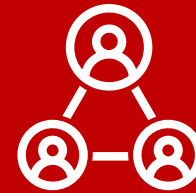

135

Volunteer
Physicians

102

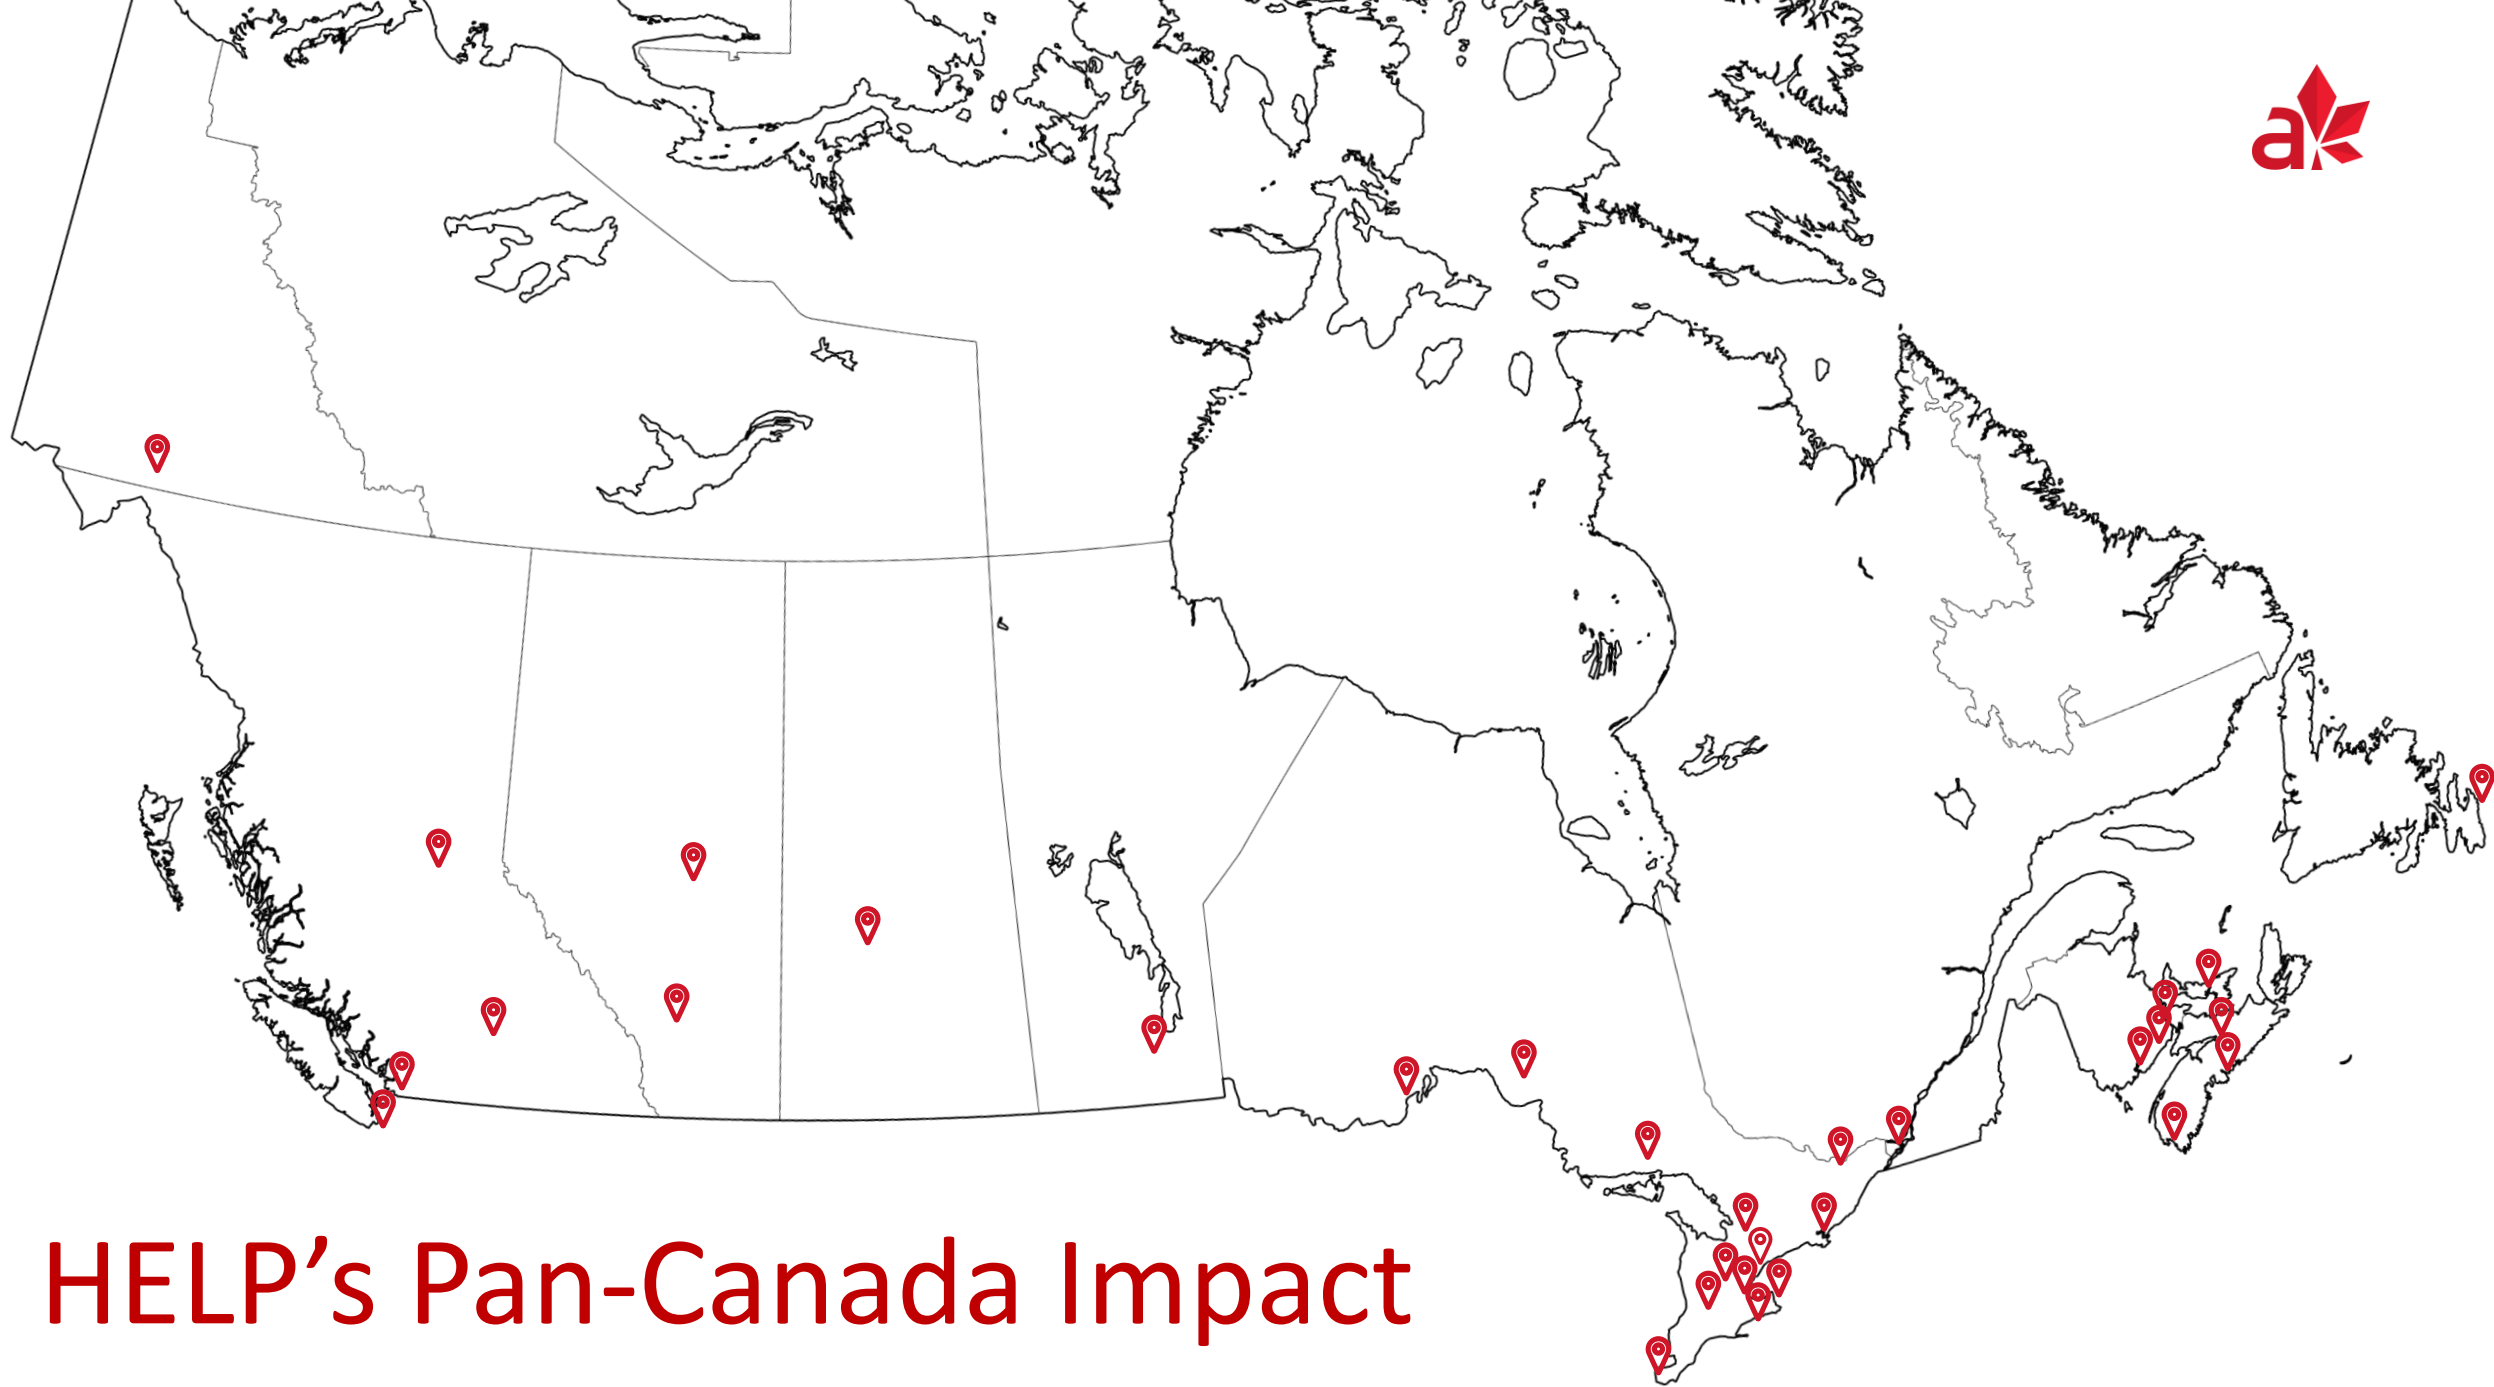

Partnerships
Formed

2,448

Hours of Support

HELP's Pan-Canada Impact

Basic Assumption – Physicians don't/won't volunteer

Competitive service environment

Funding environments

Support provided by the CMA Foundation, which provides purposeful charitable giving to Canadian charities to improve health equity and further excellence in healthcare.

Thank You!

